Mrs. Patricia Davis

WITH HER HELPFULNESS, PATIENCE AND UNDERSTANDING, MRS. DAVIS HAS HELPED US GREATLY TO PRODUCE OUR YEARBOOK. AS A VERY SMALL TOKEN OF GRATITUDE, WE, THE CLASS OF 1954, WISH TO DEDICATE THIS TWENTIETH ANNUAL BARNACLE TO HER, WITH FOND AFFECTION AND MANY, MANY THANKS.

Preface

WITH the passage of time, memories of faces and events in our past will fade swiftly into the recesses of our minds. Unbelievable as it may seem now, the time will soon come when we will find almost impossible the recollection of the faces of our classmates and the events of our high school days. The Barnacle will, we hope, serve as our reminder of the days we spent at Barnstable High School.

This twentieth annual Barnacle, therefore, is a compilation of photographs, candid shots, and brief articles of the many things we someday will want to recall. Before us we shall find pictures of classmates with whom we worked and played; there we shall see the faculty who struggled to make the time we spent in school worthwhile; athletic teams and other extra-curricula activities will be preserved by photographs to bring back to mind the fun we shared.

At times during the past few years our work has been difficult, worries have been many, and attempts to learn have seemed futile; but one day we will realize that these days really were among the best days of our lives.

The Barnacle Staff hopes that this book will fulfil its purpose—to remind you of the classmates, the faculty, the good times shared at Barnstable High School.

Historian's Report

Seventh Grade:

In September 1948, we first came to Barnstable High School. It didn't take long for us to become acquainted with how things were run. A few of us remember that year mostly because of the detention periods after school.

Eighth Grade:

The year started off with a bang with the formation of the "54" Club." We asked Mr. Arnold Smith to be our advisor. Officers were: Peggy Shields, president; Victor Skende, vice president; Charlotte Riedell, secretary; and Judy Mulvey, treasurer. The club sponsored a "Sadie Hawkin's Day Dance" with the "Santos Band." This was the first thing we ever did for our fellow B. H. S. students. To end the year we held a swimming party at Dowse's Point where the watermelons ran wild. This was the year that we chose our courses for the remaining four years.

Freshman Year:

In September 1950, thrilled and very excited, we began our freshman year at Barnstable High School. The "54" Club" was continued but with Mr. Fratus as the advisor. Though the club was not very successful in money raising projects, it did have fun. A swimming party was held at Hathaway's Pond just before school closed in the spring.

Sophomore Year:

In the fall of 1951, we returned to B. H. S. As Sophomores, we elected class officers for the first time. Mr. John J. Kilcoyne was chosen class advisor; William Thompson, president; Peggy Shields, vice president; Charlotte Riedell, secretary; and Judy Mulvey, treasurer. That year Jacquelyn Howe and Bruce Richardson were elected to represent us on the Student Council.

Our football team was "super" that year. We were undefeated! Jean Murphy, the only sophomore cheerleader that year, helped to keep the rest of us shouting in the bleachers.

The big event of the year was the "Sophomore Hop" in February. With the help of Henry Fellow's orchestra the dance was a great success. Faith Cummings and Harry Maddox were crowned King and Queen amid the colorful decorations. Different committee chairmen were: Judy Mulvey, Judy Martin, Regina Martin, Victor Skende, and Charlotte Riedell.

Junior Year:

The summer had passed quickly and we were resuming our studies as juniors. Class elections were held. Richard White was elected president; Victor Skende, vice president; Regina Martin, secretary; and Barbara Couto, treasurer. Our Student Council Representative this year was Judy Martin.

School rings were the topic for conversation from the time school opened in the fall until they were on everyone's finger, shortly after the New Year.

That year the class carried on several projects to raise money. Two cake sales, held in Hyannis and Osterville, brought in about $40. The class also sold candy in the cafeteria after school.

Our first formal function was the "Junior Prom," the theme of which was "A Moonlight Walk." Held May 15, 1953, in the high school auditorium, the dance was arranged by the chairmen, Regina Martin, Judy Mulvey, Jacquelyn Howe, Barbara Coleman, John Germani, and Bruce Richardson, assisted by Mr. Kilcoyne, our class advisor. The music was furnished by Joseph Mondeau's Orchestra. Peggy Shields was crowned Queen with Jacquelyn Howe and Harriet Mason as attendants.

Jean Watts represented our school at Girl's State and Victor Skende and William Thompson represented us at Boy's State.

The American Legion sponsored a public-speaking contest. Mr. Groves' English class took part in this contest by writing themes. The themes by Jeanette Verkade, John Anderson, and Walter Jacobson were chosen as the best. John Anderson won in an assembly for the senior high.

Senior Year:

Finally the year had come when the wheel would turn for the last time. As seniors we have a great deal more responsibility and work. We started the year with a membership of 96. We elected our officers for this all important year: Richard White, president; John Germani, vice president; Regina Martin, secretary; and Jean Watts, treasurer. Elected to the Student Council was Edward Crosby. Jacquelyn Howe became president of the Council.

Our major concern in the fall was class pictures which were taken by Purdy. George McLean was in charge. A special day was set aside for sittings, and everyone was dressed in his best for this long awaited occasion.

Some of our money-making projects were: the hot dog and cold tonic stands at the football games; selling Christmas cards; and the continuation of the project of the preceding year, selling candy in the cafeteria after school. Nancy Cross headed the committee of the food concession at the games; Regina Martin was chairman of the cards; and Victor Skende and Marcia Hull took care of the candy sales.

Classmates not to be forgotten are Robert Leemen, who won first prize in a cattle contest; Connie Carver, who was the representative from Barnstable High for Cranberry Queen; Nancy Shepard, who did a wonderful job as a member of the Press Bureau; and Victor Skende, who was Junior Rotarian from Barnstable High and attended the meetings of the Hyannis Rotary Club.

Good Government Day was held in Boston at the State House. Edward Crosby was elected by his fellow students to represent Barnstable High School there.

The most important activity as seniors has been the editing of the yearbook, the BARNACLE. Victor Skende, editor-in-chief, with the help of Mrs. Patricia Ruth Davis, the literary advisor, and Mrs. Blanche Waldman, the advertising advisor, did a wonderful job. Other members of the staff were George McLean, Janice Kelly, Joan Kittila, Barbara Coggeshall, Marcia Hull, Harriet Mason, Beverly Howes, Judy Mulvey, Richard White, Jacquelyn Howe, Faith Cummings, William Thompson, John Germani, Charlotte Riedell, Sandra Parker, Barbara White, Jane Libby, Lillian Lorrett, Jean Watts, and Delores Nelson.

We the class of "54", wish to thank Mr. John J. Kilcoyne, our class advisor, for the guidance and aid he has offered us and for keeping us in line.

We have all had six wonderful years at Barnstable High, but as all things come to an end, so must they. May there be a lot more pleasant years ahead of us.

Class Prophecy

Dear "Pop"

Well, it's been 20 years since we left good old B. H. S. Would you like to hear how some of us have been doing since then?

Barb White, Dorice Allain, and Bruce Richardson are doing all right for themselves. They took over Arthur Murray's Dance Studio. Barb teaches modern dancing and Dorice tap and acrobatic. Bruce teaches ballroom dancing for those shy guys. Joan Allen is Superintendent of Nurses at Greenwich Hospital in Connecticut. Guess what? John Anderson won the Nobel Prize for oration. Remember how well he did in the essay contests? Jimmy Ansboro owns a chain of greenhouses and florist shops across the country. Well, Joan Barabe followed through her work in the Cape Cod Bakery and is now chief decorator for the bakery chain. Jimmy Campbell is doing well. You know he fell heir to the Campbell Soup Company. Some luck! Connie Carver, who was a contestant for Cranberry Queen, is now the assistant to Candy Jones, head of the Conover Modeling Agency.

The other night I went to the Stork Club and guess who I saw! Dave Chesbro, who has taken over Harry James' Band was the feature attraction. Alma Goffin and Barb Coggeshall remained with the N. E. Tel. and Tel., Barb as Chief Operator and "Vickie" as Assistant Chief Operator. David Crocker designed the new 1974 Buick-Cadillac. Eddie Crosby was voted the Best Dressed Man in the U. S. for the year of 1970. Nancy Cross attended modeling school and is now one of the highest paid models in the business. The other day I was visiting the Mayo Clinic and ran into Faith Cummings, the head laboratory technician there. Walter Eldredge is head of the Photography Department of the Kodak Company. I always thought he'd make good in his hobby. "Nona" Ferdensi is the head buyer for Filene's Department Store.

Franny Fermino, our great center, is the coach of Holy Cross Football squad. In 1954, Jane Gallant won a scholarship to Cambridge University in England. She set a precedent for that University to going co-ed. Dickie Hassett is playing football with the Los Angeles Rams. "Skippy" Hostetter is the owner of the fabulous Broadway restaurant "Skippy's Skip-Inn." It's a nice cozy place right in the heart of Broadway.

The other day on my way to London, I traveled over the beautiful new super highway between Cape Cod and London, via the Atlantic. Four of our classmates built this bridge, Carol Horacek, was the financial manager; Walter Jacobson, the supervisor; Donnie Pena, the manager; and Billy Nye, the designer.

Jackie Howe is now the manager at Aunt Tempey's Tea Room. Bev Howes is the private secretary to old Senator McCarthy. You probably read about how Bob Hoxie and his associates cracked the Brownlease kidnaping case. Bob finally got his big break.

Barbara Couto, our class treasurer for the Junior year, is married and working for White Bros. Milk Co. Joanne Amaral is married and living in her dream house in West Barnstable. After her experiences with the school candy concession Marcia Hull has taken over the Hershey Candy Company. Janice Kelly is married and living in Japan where her husband is stationed. Joan Kittila, voted the best-looking girl in the Senior Class, was chosen Mrs. America of 1960. Connie Perry joined the Waves and is now a Commander at the Naval Hospital in Portsmouth, Virginia. Nancy Winnikainen is the executive secretary at M. G. M. studios in Hollywood, California. Both Betty Bourque and Barbara Eldridge are married. While Betty's husband is overseas with the Armed Forces, she is book-keeping for her father. Barbara has taken over her mother's business in Hyannis. Lillian Lorrett is now Director of Nursing at the Newton Wellesley Hospital.

Did you watch George McLean's Talent Sprouts last night? He had some very good talent on. John McGoff, a second Groucho Marx, and Harriet Mason, a Metropolitan Opera star tied for first place and will go into the finals next week. Did you hear about Regina Martin campaigning for the U. S. Senate? Vic Skende is running on the same ticket for the Presidency. If he wins, which looks probable, Barb Coleman will be the head majorette for the Inaugural Parade. Remember who was queen of our Junior Prom? Well, Peg Shields was chosen Miss America for the year of 1958. I just had some work done on my house and I would recommend Walter Lundquist's work to anyone. It's a life of excitement and gaiety on "Old Broadway" for our "Murph." She's a dancer in New York with the "Rockettes." By the way, Bev Daniels is also in the same group with Murph.

I went to the art show at the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston to see the prize-winning entry by Judy Mulvey, who is now recognized as a great artist. I heard that the spread of a big forest fire was stopped by a very brave and alert forest ranger, Frank Mello, who was lauded by the governor for his alertness. I got a letter from the former Jean Watts. She lives in a big mansion on Long Island with her husband who is the president of the First National Bank of the United States. Jean also told me that Jeanette Verkade had won a scholarship in "54" to study abroad. I saw the dreamiest new clothes in the window of Clear weaves new modern mart. Eileen Sylvester is their buyer these days. I ran into Claire Harmon up town the other day and she was pushing a baby carriage, holding not one baby but three! ! ! Pat Dudley and Timmy Butler are writing the sports page for the New York Times. Marguerite Doyle is a Dean at Vassar. Jane Libby is married and on her way to Italy with her husband.

Quite a few of our boys went into the service and came home with medals all over their chests. The president of our class, Dick White, went into the Coast Guard along with Grant Todd. Arthur Marney (remember how small he was) went into the Air Force and has just flown the first rocket ship around the world on a test run. Donald Souza was just given a commission as a four-star General in the army. He led the 25th Infantry through the enemy lines with nothing but a hand grenade with which to attack. Myles Alymer and Bill Crocker are quadruple jet aces in the War against Russia. We certainly are proud of them. Bobby Cary, Dickie Drinkwater, and Donnie Grant made a great record for themselves during the war and are now back in the reserves. Avelino Dutra, Bobby Leeman, Alfred Johnson, and Jon Allen are stationed at the Pentagon with the Armed Services.

I hear there is a fine basketball team touring the states. Harry Maddox and John Germani are their star players. "Dee" Nelson, and Trudy Jacobs are the stars of the nationally known girls basketball team which is going to play against a men's team at Madison Square Garden next week. Eileen Marchant has taken over Mr. Grant's place as a music teacher. Did you see the opening of "Max's" Used Car Lot this week? Dick Norman is doing all right with his hobby of old cars. Paul Norton has just been promoted to the position of sales-manager at the General Electric Sales Division. The "Sleepy-Hollow Motel" has a thriving business since Audrey Pendergast took over the management. Looks like she is following in the footsteps of her father. Gail Twitchell has taken over Mildred's Chowder House. Betty Jane Montcalm is her head cook. Charlotte Pye is happily married and with her family just moved into their new home over in "Shark City." Remember Judy Martin? She's the one who did such a wonderful job of decorating for the Sophomore Hop. Well, she's now a very well known interior decorator. Sandy Parker is working in Woolworth's while her husband is at the Norfolk Naval Base.

Say, "Pop," if you want to go on a diet, I know just the girl to see. Charlotte Riedell is now a nationally known consultant on the subject. Nancy Shepard is secretary to the present President and will continue to be Victor's if he is elected. Barbara Weber is a happy bride living in Texas where her husband is stationed. If you want to get good service when you eat out in Boston, go to the Parker House. Barb Pierce is head waitress there. Her brother, Ray, is now with the New York Yankees and had the highest batting average for last season. Wayne Glover was his trainer and a good one too. Did you hear about the new president of M. I. T.? William Thompson will take over this week. He received his doctorate last year with "summa cum laude." Boston University has a professor there that is just tops. He is none other than our "A" student, Adelbert Weaver. Connie Santos is living in Germany where her husband is now stationed with the Armed Services.

Ray Thyng has just been promoted to manager for the new modern A & P store. Judy Woodruff has had a good position as the governor's secretary for quite a while. The other night I went to a lecture and guess who was speaking? None other than Jolyn Rogeberg, our classmate from Norway.

Well, I guess that covers everybody in our class. I'll write again in a few years and let you know again how everyone is doing.

Sincerely yours,

Sitting: J. Howe, President; L. Bearse, Vice President; J. Martin.

THE Student Council is a very important organization as it represents our entire student body in official matters. This year the members have tried to introduce the honor system into the school. Their activities included serving as ushers at Open House and officiating at class elections. The officers are: Jackie Howe, President; Lawrence Bearse, Vice President and Martha White, Secretary.

The Traffic Squad

THE Traffic Squad, composed of our honor students, has kept up the good work of its previous members in maintaining order and discipline in the corridors between classes.

They are under the direction of Mr. Henry Levinson, and the Chief Marshal, Regina Martin. The three Floor Marshals are Bruce Richardson, Victor Skende, and Amelia Ferdensi. The other Seniors on the squad are: Marguerite Doyle, Jane Gallant, Carol Horacek, Jackie Howe, Marcia Hull, Janice Kelley, Jane Libby, Lillian Lorrett, Peggy Shields, William Thompson, Jeanette Verkade, and Jean Watts.

Second row: L. Lorrett, M. O'Brien, M. Hull, J. Libby, A. Stevens, P. Shields, J. Watts, J. Alberghini, J. Leach, J. Kerkade.

Third row: C. Horacek, J. Gallant, J. Jacobson, J. McDonough, J. LaFlamboy, M. Doyle, P. Campbell, M. Petrides, D. Horgan.

Clipper Staff

THE Clipper, our school magazine which is written and edited by our own classmates is an exceptionally fine magazine. It is a member of The Columbia Scholastic Press Association. Full of interesting articles, stories, and pictures about our friends and classmates, the magazine is read by many.

Press Bureau

THE Press Bureau is a group deserving a great deal of credit for what they do. The members are responsible for all the pictures and articles concerning school activities found in the newspapers. The president of this group is Nancy Shepard. Other members are Jean McDonough, secretary; Parker Moore, Diann Perry, and Maureen Linehan.

Barnstable High School Band

THE Barnstable High School Band was ably directed by Mr. Simon Gesin this year. It has been very colorfully and noisely present at our football games, giving a terrific boost to our school spirit.

We admired the courage of the members when they conquered frozen hands and feet to represent our school so splendidly at various town gatherings, such as the Armistice Day Parade.

The Seniors in the band this year were: David Chesboro, and Dorice Allain with Barbara Coleman, Barbara Coggeshall, and Joan Barabe as majorettes.

Mixed Chorus

THIS year the Glee Club became so large it was necessary to form a chorus comprised of tenth grade girls while the Junior and Senior girls combined with the Boy's Glee Club to form a mixed chorus. This mixed chorus has performed before many gatherings this year under the direction of Mr. Simon Gesin with Miss Dorothy Barton at the piano. The Seniors in this chorus are A. Goffin, C. Horacek, C. Riedell, J. Gallant, D. Pina, P. Norton, A. Pendergast, B. White, C. Harmon, W. Crocker, W. Eldredge, B. Richardson, J. Verkade, B. Weber, J. Amaral, E. Marchant, D. Chesbro, M. Doyle, A. Football

BACKED by veterans Harry Maddox, Tim Butler, Carlton Crocker, Fran Fermino, Dick White, Jim O'Neil, Walt Jacobson, and Matt Rosary, Coach Shields led the "53" edition of the "Red Raiders" into their opener with hopes for a great season that were further bolstered when B.H.S. squeezed by a favored Coyle team, 6-0. Barnstable did not fare as well in the next tilt, as they dropped it to New Bedford High, 12-6, but the next two weeks produced two of Barnstable's best victories as they rolled over New Bedford Voke 27-6 and Fairhaven 33-13. On the following Saturday, the Raiders suffered their first and only loss on the battlefield to a stubborn Wareham team by a 7-0 score. Barnstable then split the next two, beating Plymouth 27-6 and losing to a powerful Attleboro "11", 13-7. The "Red Raiders" finished the season in a blaze of glory by stepping all over a hapless Falmouth team in the "turkey game" by a 30-7 count. Barnstable completed the season with a 5 and 3 mark and rolled up 136 points to their opponents' 64.

Individual honors went to "Hoker" Jacobson, Dick Hassett, and Harry Maddox who made honorable mention on the All-State roster; to Jim Murphy who received the Ray Hostetter award for the player who exemplified outstanding effort and spirit; and to Harry Maddox who won the Cape's schoolboy scoring title and received an award as B.H.S.'s top back. Fran Fermino headed the list of our stars, being named the Cape's player-of-the-year; voted most valuable lineman; chosen winner of the 19th Hinkle Trophy. National honors went to Franny when he was given honorable mention on the nation's All-American Schoolboy Team. To cap it off, B.H.S., was named the Cape's number one team.

Third Row: R. Cross, B. MacIntyre, J. Sanford, J. Lewis, C. Syriala, W. Ryder, W. Sears.

Basketball

FACING a turnout of fifty hopeful aspirants, Coach Maki set about the difficult task of choosing a squad to wear the red and white of B. H. S. on the hardwood courts. The finished product proved that this was to be no mediocre year for the Red Raiders when it trounced a highly favored Wareham "5" in the first game. Losing to New Bedford Vocational, defeating their first two Cape opponents, the team met Yarmouth for the first time on enemy ground with a 3 and 1 record. Yarmouth won, but the Raiders repeated the old saying, "Wait 'til next time." Meanwhile, they picked up four more wins. Finally the Dolphins invaded Barnstable. The game was a fight from the word go; but when the dust settled, the scoreboard read B. H. S. 49, Yarmouth 41. The season ended with one loss and one win.

Next came the Principal's Association Tournament to decide the Cape championship. Barnstable quickly disposed of Orleans and Chatham so that once again they met the Dolphins—this time for the title tilt. Two thousand fans at Camp Edwards arena saw the Barnstable lads, minus their star rebounder, Jim O'Neil, again outplay the Green to bring the trophy home for the first time in five years. Two days later, the Barnstable combo was eliminated from the Tech Tourney by Dartmouth.

There were several reasons for the Raider's great year, the great support and spirit of the student body, the outstanding coaching job of Mr. Maki, the fighting spirit of rookies Jim O'Neil and Jim Sanford, the height and rebounding of Mel Graves, the leadership and fine performances of co-captains Harry Maddox and John Roy Germani. At the first annual Boosters' Club banquet the Most Valuable Player award went to John Germani while Jim O'Neil was given the Most Improved Player award.

Girls' Basketball

ALTHOUGH the basketball season for the Raiderettes was a short and not very impressive one, the Barnstable girls displayed terrific spirit and expert ball handling. The opening game of the '53-'54 season was with Bourne. This was a fight to the finish with the Bourne girls coming out on top, 79-70. The next two contests were victories for the Raiderettes who defeated Yarmouth, 57-26, and trimmed Wareham, 60-29. Following a very long lay-off our girls met Provincetown, only to lose by a 72-55 score. Still unable to climb on victory road, the Raiderettes invaded Wareham only to be defeated, 67-46. The last two games of the regular season ended on a better note when Yarmouth was again trimmed, 66-36, and Bourne was repaid for its earlier victory and lost to the Raiderettes, 78-49. Entering the Principal's Tournament, the Raiderettes defeated Orleans, 65-29, in the first game only to lose to Sandwich, 54-40, in a thrilling semi-final tilt.

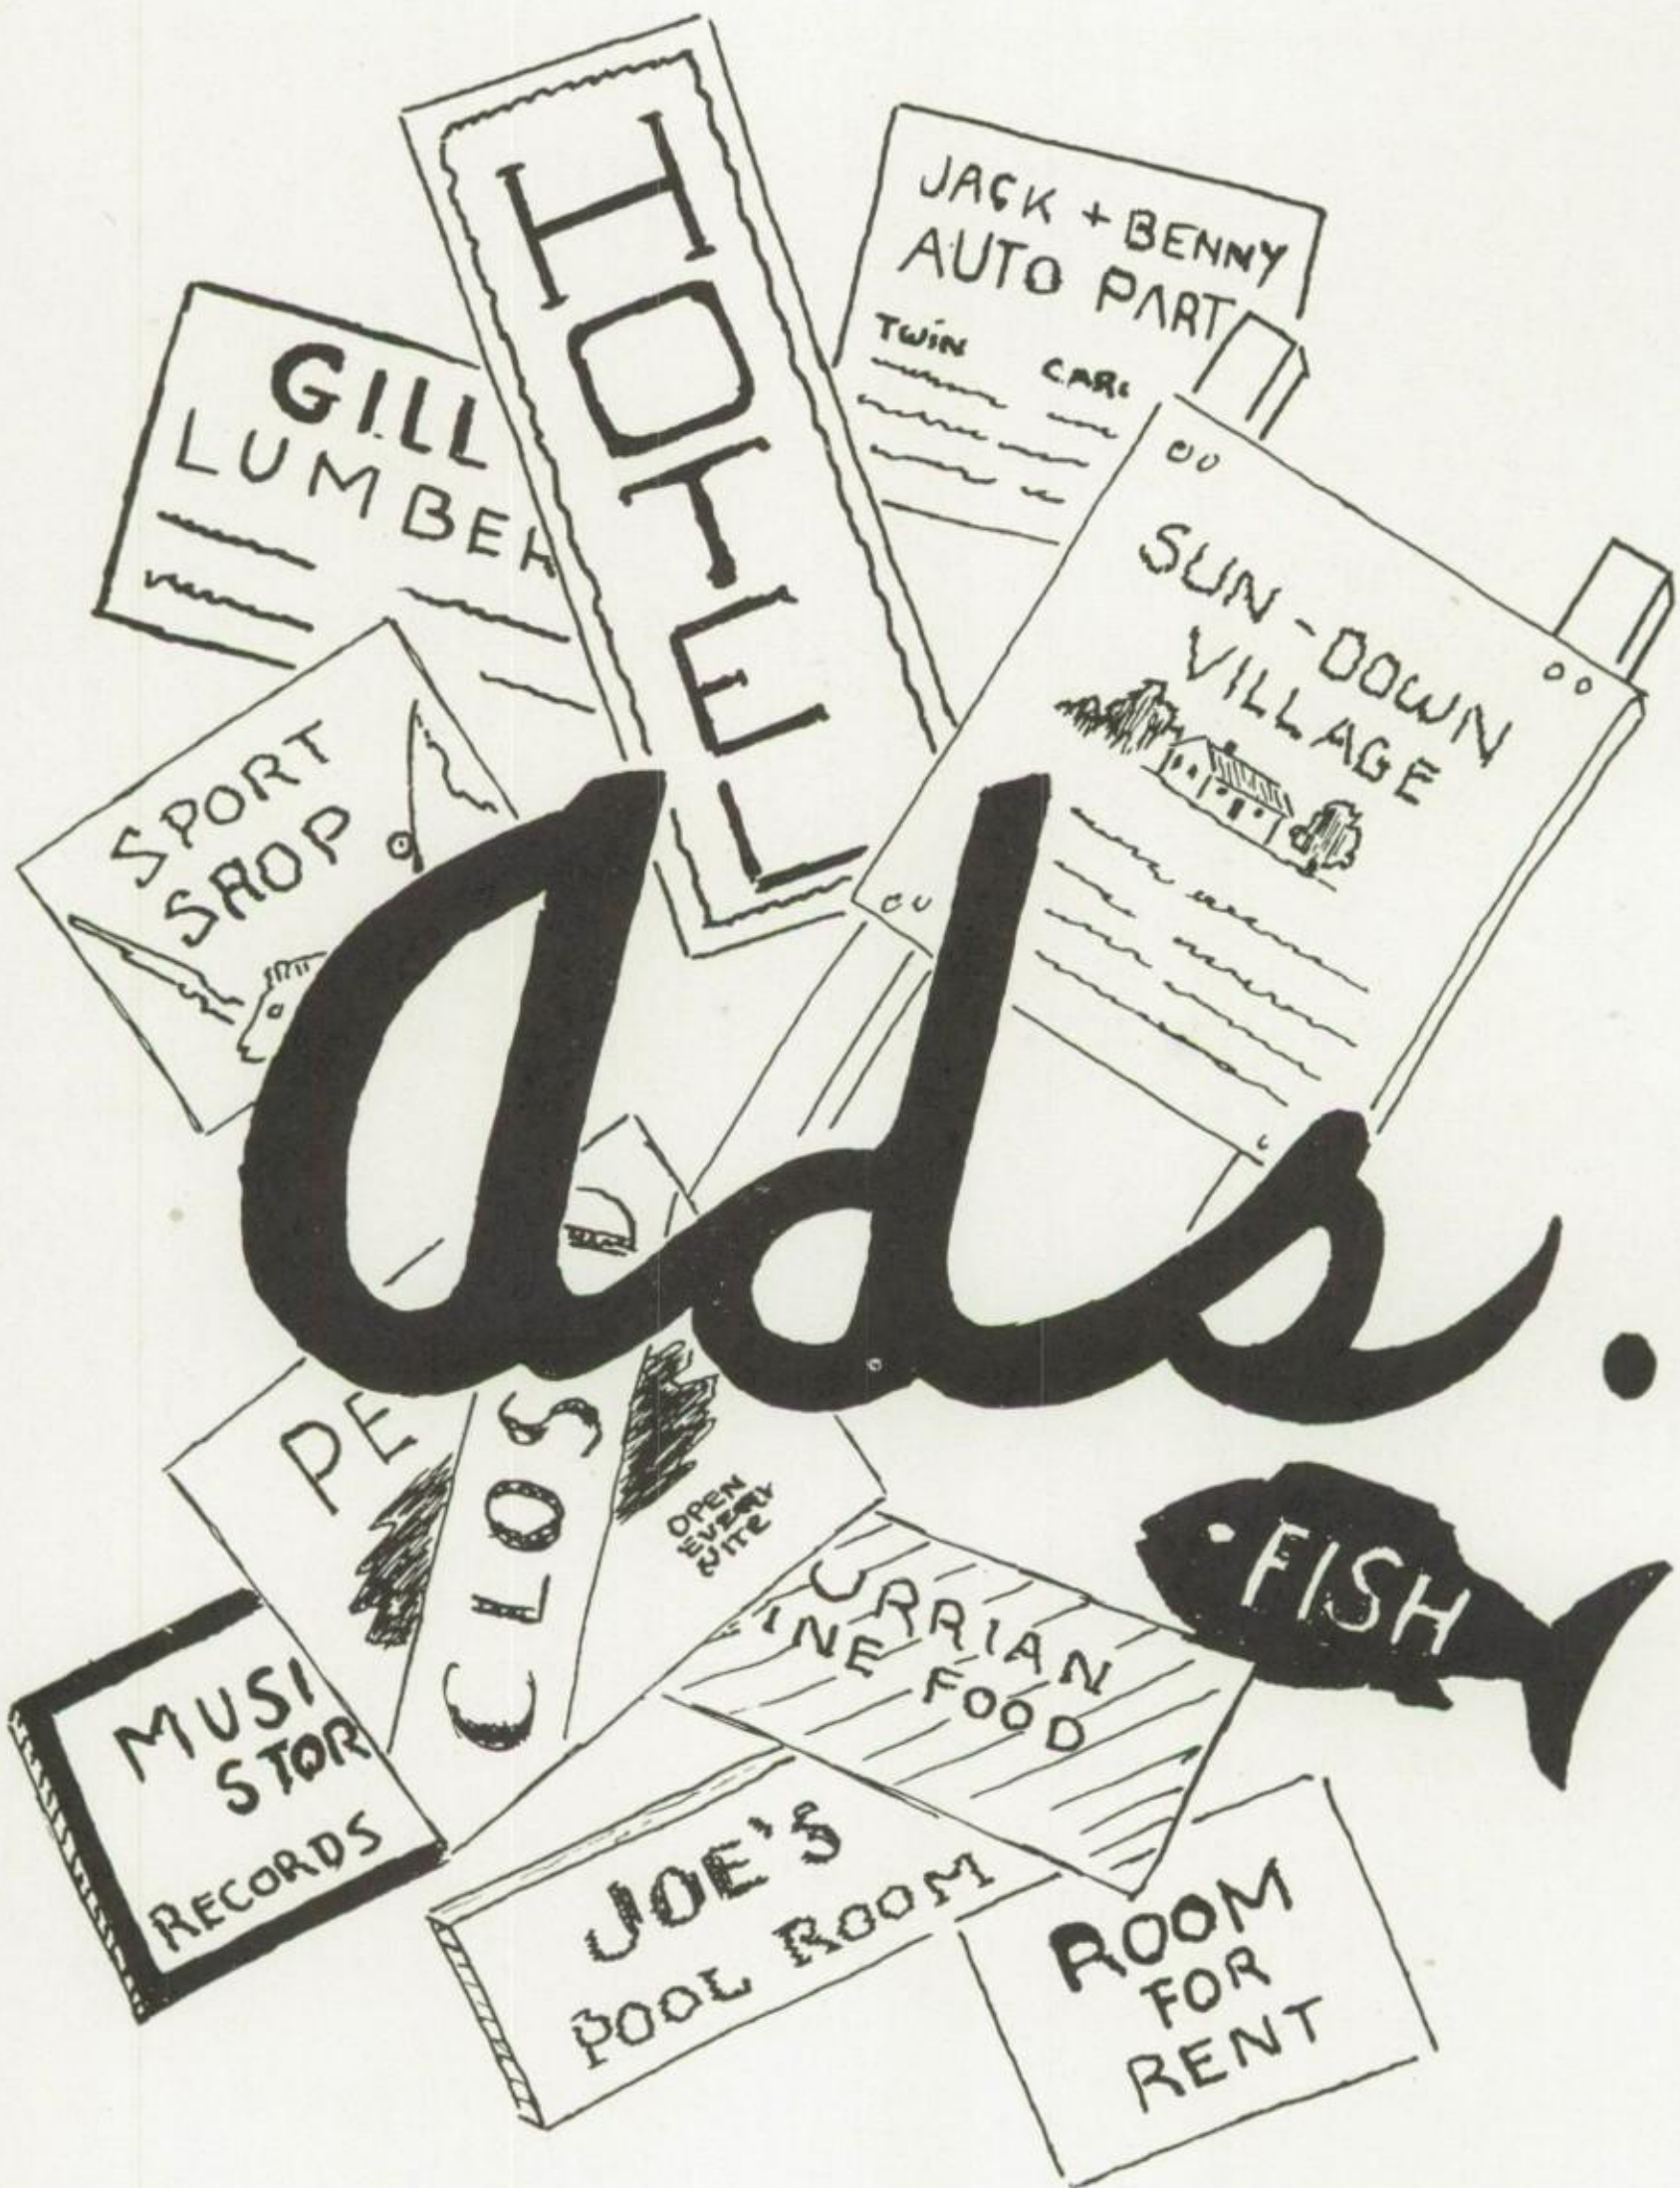

Having wound up the season with five wins and four losses, including tournament games, it was quite evident that the season had been too short and games scheduled too far apart. Coach Nehubian, however, did her usual fine job of coaching. The second team managed to win all its games so we are in hopes that this is a forecast of a bright future. At the first annual Booster's Club Banquet, Faith Cummings was presented the award for the Most Valuable Player and Dolores Nelson was awarded the trophy for the Most Improved Player. Sweaters and letters are to be awarded at a later date.

Cheerleaders

THE Cheerleaders of '54 kept our spirits high during the football and basketball seasons. In December the girls held the Holly Hop Dance which was a big success. Among their other activities were card selling to earn money for new uniforms and acting as waitresses at the boys' football banquet and the boys' and girls' basketball banquet.
